Welcome to the EurBee11 Conference!

It is our great pleasure to invite you to participate in the 11th European Conference of Apidology (EurBee11), which will take place from 7 to 10 September 2026 in Bologna, Italy. The conference is jointly organized by CREA-AA - Research Centre for Agriculture and Environment and the Alma Mater Studiorum - University of Bologna, two institutions with longstanding scientific traditions and strong ties to the history of apidology. EurBee11 will provide a stimulating environment for researchers from across Europe and beyond—both established scientists and emerging scholars—to exchange cutting-edge knowledge on honey bees and wild bees. The conference is an exceptional opportunity for early-career researchers to engage directly with leading experts, promoting dialogue, networking, and future collaborations essential for the sustainable advancement of apidological science. Set in the heart of northern Italy, Bologna offers an inspiring backdrop for this scientific gathering. Known for its academic excellence, cultural heritage, and welcoming atmosphere, the city embraces the value of international collaboration. With a walkable and bike-friendly medieval centre, over 40 kilometres of iconic porticoes, more than 50 museums, and a renowned culinary tradition, Bologna ensures a memorable stay for all EurBee11 participants. We look forward to welcoming you to Bologna for an engaging and rewarding conference experience.

General information

DATE

7-10 September 2026

ABOUT THE AUDIENCE

EurBee11 is expected to welcome over 400 participants from diverse areas of apidology, including scientists, academics, policymakers, environmental organizations, and apicultural stakeholders.

Recognized as the leading European apidology gathering, the EurBee conference consistently attracts an international audience. Previous editions have hosted participants from over 50 countries, underlining its global relevance and appeal.

Now in its 11th edition, the conference continues to receive support from leading companies in fields such as advanced technology, control of bee diseases, honey bee feeding, and bee product manufacturers.

A dedicated exhibition area will be available throughout the conference, providing opportunities for visibility, networking, and direct engagement with attendees.

THE VENUE

The conference venue will be at the Bologna Congress Center, located at the edge of Bologna's historic city centre.

The exhibition space, where sponsoring companies will present their products and services, will be located in the foyer area. Coffee breaks and lunches will also be served in this area to encourage interaction between delegates and exhibitors.

The facility includes:

- Sala Europa auditorium (500 seats) for plenary sessions and symposia;
- Sala Bianca (150 seats) for symposia;
- Sala Italia (285 seats) for symposia;
- Sala Azzurra (200 seats) for symposia;
- a dedicated area for poster sessions;
- a room for the secretariat and conference services.
